NEW OFFICE

In the Federal Court Business is Established at Philippi.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 3.—A change has been ordered in the office of the United States district attorney, which will take effect immediately. J. Howard Wilcox, assistant, has been ordered to remove his headquarters to Philippi, the home of Judge Dayton, and he is now making arrangements to leave.

By the change Parkersburg will have but one of the federal attorneys stationed here, John Marshall, as H. Roy Waugh, the district attorney, moved to Buckhannon some months ago. The change really means that a new office has been established at Philippi. Mr. Waugh and Mr. Wilcox will both be here during the terms of court and often when there is other business to require their attention.

WALLACE

WALLACE, Jan. 3.—W. L. Martin has moved from his residence near the depot to his farm on Sycamore. His son, J. H. Martin, has moved into the house he vacated here.

Miss Francis Beverlin, daughter of John Beverlin, a tool dresser who lives near the depot, fell on ice recently and broke an arm. She was given medical attention and is doing nicely.

Miss Una Kemper is here packing her household goods to move to Clarksburg. She will locate in the Fair Ground addition.

George Dean and son, Lyle, of Indianapolis, Ind., who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dean on Middle run, left Thursday morning for Farmington where they will visit relatives.

Miss Cora Barnes and Missouria Robinson spent New Year's day at Clarksburg as guests of Mrs. Guy W. Lyon.

Mrs. Will Wright and daughter, Ruby, and Mrs. C. E. Lambert were guests of Mrs. T. V. Carson at Dola recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Varner and family, of Pennsylvania, were here a few days this week guests of Mr. Varner's sister, Mrs. G. T. Williamson.

Misses Alma Sybert and Twila Silke were visiting friends at Smithfield recently.

Mrs. Ruhama Talkington, of Alliance, was here recently enroute to Richwood to see her son, Harlin Talkington, who met with a serious accident while working in timber, when a large limb from a tree fell on his head and rendered him in a serious condition.
